Roundtable

Kelly McCoy reviewed Senate Bill 1067 amendments/revisions to CalCode:

- Calcode Section 114093 was repealed and rewritten for consumer advisory to incorporate the FDA food code language that requires a food facility to inform consumers on the menus or tabletops regarding the increased risk of consuming specified animal food that is served or sold raw, undercooked, or without another process to eliminate pathogens.
- Minor changes to minimum cooking temperatures for various raw animal proteins
- Revisions to the Reduced Oxygen Packaging (ROP) requirements
- Food allergen education requirements
- Amendments to include “juicing” under “limited food preparation”
- Amendments for shared warewashing drainboards

- Mobile Food Facility permit holder signage requirements

Each of these items will be presented and discussed in detail at the next Industry Meeting, scheduled for November 15, 2016.
